2016 INFOPICTURE

Datum? I hardly knowum!

The Fiesta raised

$19,323.61

That is equal to 1,932,361 pennies.

700 players went on to play another run! Wait. That was last year's data. This year 1679 did!

The Job Fair itself raised $1295. $165 more than last year!

D_Amagai completed thirty runs, defeating Neo Exdeath, Shinryu and Omega every time.

120 jobs. 15 Dragons. Not a single Knight. Or night of sleep, right!

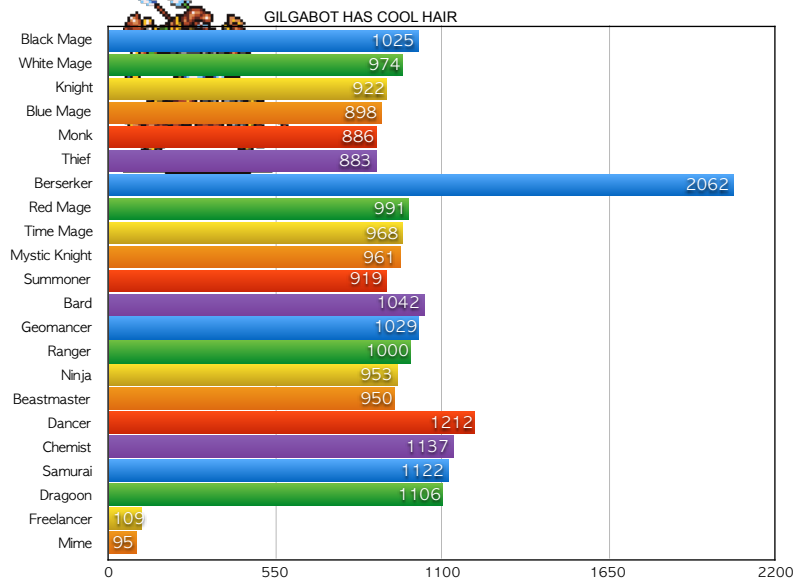

THIS IS SOME MARVELOUS DATA.

JUST AND FAIR

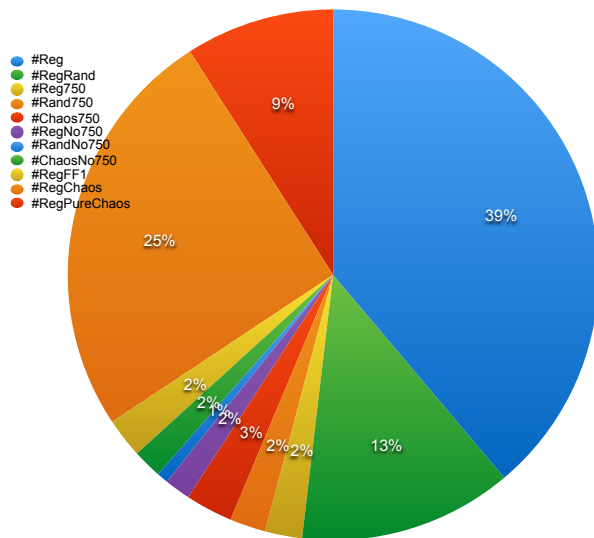

Pure Chaos made Mime and Freelancer more prevalent!

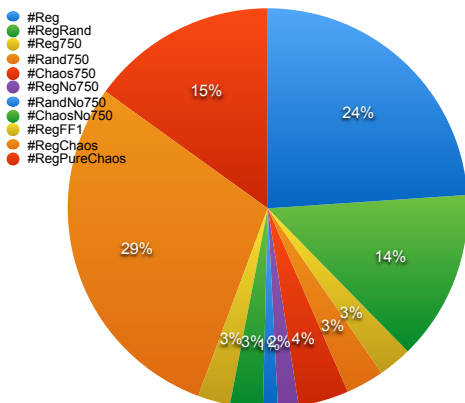

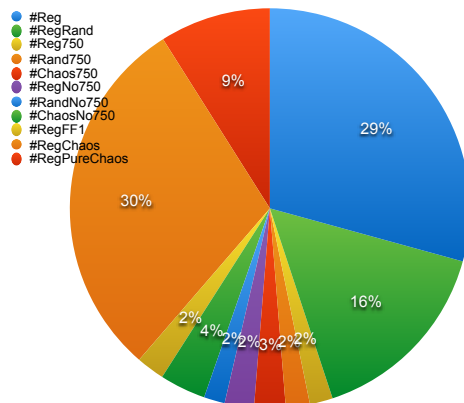

Types of Runs (5311 total)

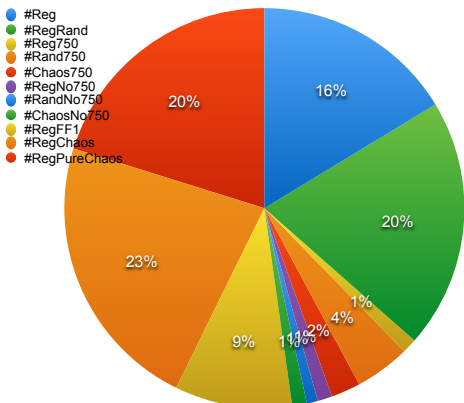

Completed Runs: 2336

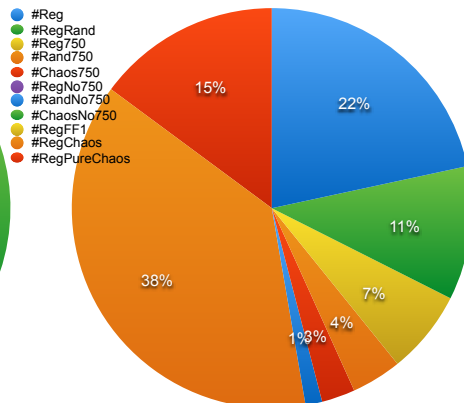

Ex Death Only: 1182

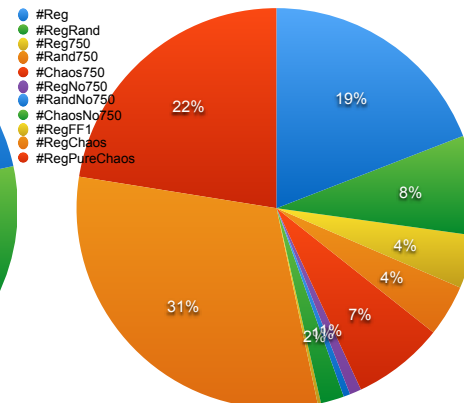

Ex Death + Shinryu: 337

Ex Death + Omega: 74

All Three Bosses: 743

THE TRADITIONAL “MOST COMMON AND LEAST COMMON JOB SET” WHICH BECOMES HARDER TO QUANTIFY EACH YEAR

Most “Common” Job Set

Seven had it. Four were victorious.

- Black Mage
- Berserker
- Bard
- Dancer

Popular~~~~~

Least “Common” Job Set

Two had it. Both won.

- Thief
- Summoner
- Beastmaster
- Dragoon

But we are mathematically better!

Most Common Job Amongst Players Who Beat All 3 Bosses

Bard!

Take that, Chemist!

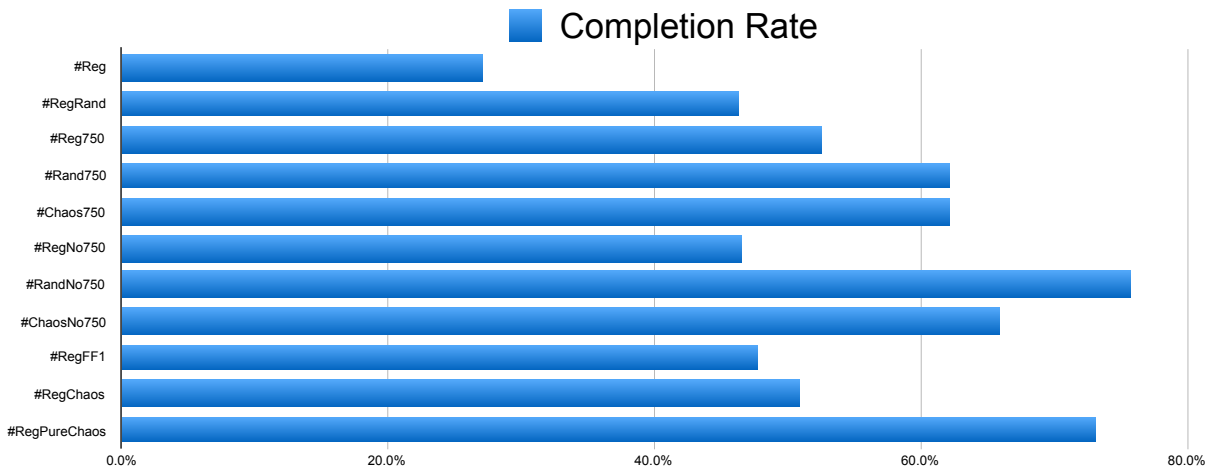

Least Common Job Amongst Players Who Beat All 3 Bosses

Monk

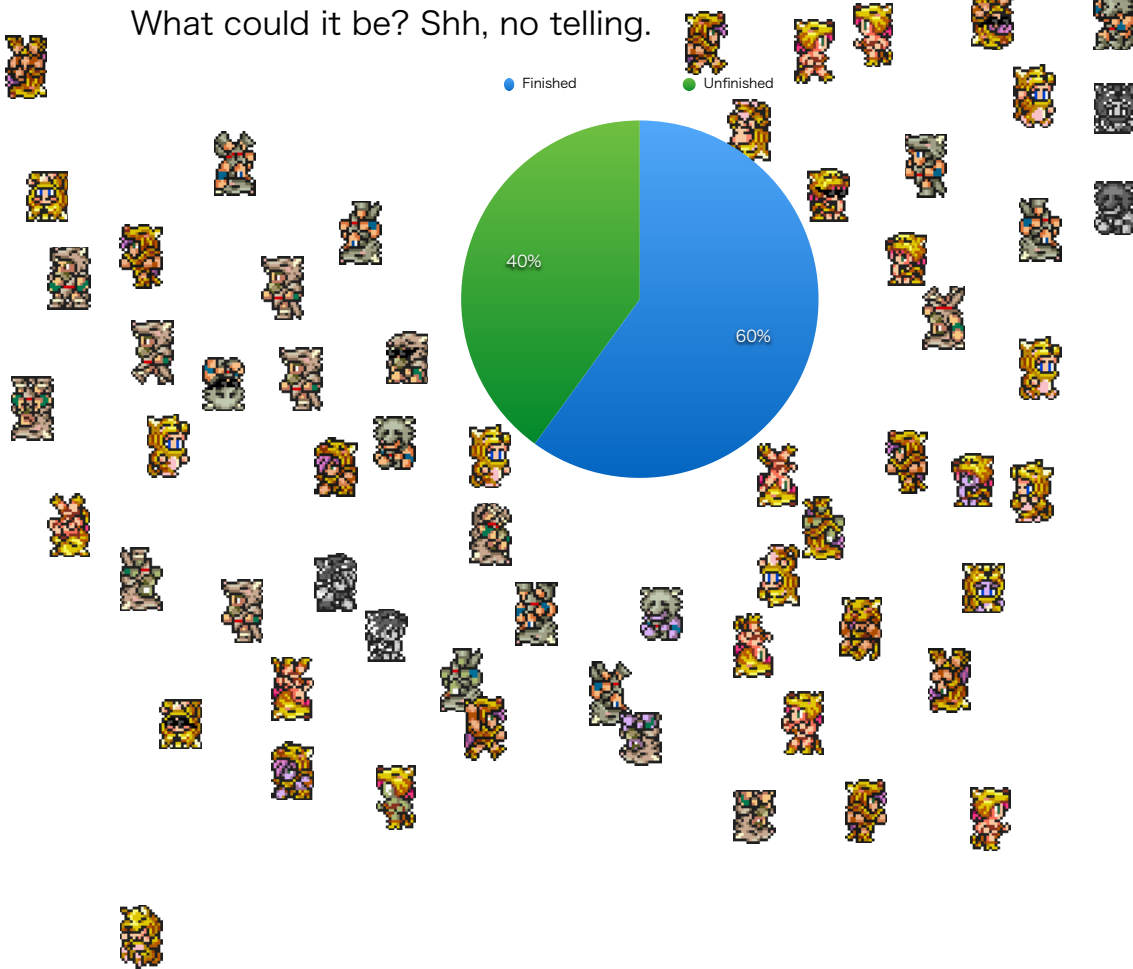

My streak!
It continues!

THAT GAME WITH A MATH-USING CLASS IS STILL BAD THOUGH!

THE SECRET MODE (OF WHICH THERE WERE 30 RUNS)

What could it be? Shh, no telling.

(Unrelated? 810 players signed up for BERSERKER RISK this year)

THIS IS WHERE WE SAY SOMETHING
WITTY BEFORE
SAYING GOODBYE,
RIGHT?

Well, we don't have to.

Um, bye?

OKAY, BYE.

YEP.
BYE.
